Young Adult Novel Author Visits Libraries

Local author, Herb Heiman, will talk to teens at several local libraries about writing his award-winning book Running on Dreams. This special free program is part of the Jackson County Library's Summer Reading Program.

Herb Heiman toured the United States as a professional pantomime performer for over twenty years. He was also a middle school special education instructor for over twelve years. Running on Dreams, set in Talent, Oregon, is about Brad, a popular track star, who is assigned to work with Justin, a new student with autism. When Brad overcomes his viewpoint of autism, he discovers similarities between himself and Justin.
