

IT'S TIME TO PLAY ROGUE READS BINGO!

How to play: From now through February complete the books or activities on the board. Get five squares in a row for a bingo. When you get a bingo bring your card to your local library for a prize!

Bingo cards and prizes are available while supplies last.

Visit jcls.org/rogue-reads to learn more

Read We Are Water Protectors	Read JCLS' land acknowledgment online.	Write or draw in a nature journal	Check out a book from a library display	Explore a library database
Explore the First Nations Collection of the Southern Oregon Digital Archives	Read Indian No More	Sign up for Beanstack to track your winter reads	Visit Ti'lomikh Falls and learn about the village that once was	Check out an item from the Library of Things
Visit the Table Rocks and read the historical signs	Invite a friend to participate in a Rogue Reads library program		Read a library blog post	Watch a movie or show by indigenous creators
Visit grandronde.org to learn about the Confederated Tribes of the Grand Ronde	Stream a video from the library using Kanopy or Hoopla	Attend Robin Wall Kimmerer's author talk on February 23	Read The Marrow Thieves	Read a book by an indigenous author
Pick up a Take & Make from your library	Visit native-land.ca to learn about the people native to where you live	Download an e-book from the library using Libby	Attend a library program	Read Braiding Sweetgrass