Jackson County Library District Seeking Candidates for Board Vacancy

Jackson County Library District is accepting applications to fill one open position on its board of directors.

The appointee will serve the remainder of Kim Young's term, which ends June 30, 2025. Kim Young resigned from the board effective June 30, 2024.

The Jackson County Library Board of Directors is comprised of five board members. Each member is elected by the registered voters of the district to serve a four-year term. Each Board member is charged with serving the best interests of the District and will exercise and carry out the powers and authority granted by the Oregon Revised Statutes, including ORS Chapter 198, and those statutes outlined in the Principal Act for Jackson County Library District, ORS Chapter 357.

Interested candidates can access an information packet, which includes information about the district, position, and application/selection process, from the district website www.jcls.org or by contacting Library Director Kari May at director@jcls.org.

The deadline to submit applications for this vacancy is May 10 at 5:00 p.m.

For more information, please contact Library Director Kari May at director@jcls.org.
