

WINDOWS IN TIME

The monthly Windows in Time lunchtime lectures feature well-known writers and historians and bring alive the people, values, and events that shaped our Southern Oregon heritage. Lectures are jointly sponsored by the Southern Oregon Historical Society (SOHS) and Jackson County Library Services. Register at jcls.org/events to attend the Zoom version of Medford's program. Recordings of presentations are available on the JCLS Beyond YouTube channel.

The Chemawa American, A Record of Chemawa Indian School, 18+

Chemawa Indian School is the oldest operating off-reservation boarding school for Native children in the U.S. Maureen Flanagan Battistella will discuss its history and the recent digitization of its school newspaper.

December 3, 12:00-1:00 PM
Online & In-Person at the
Medford Library
December 10, 12:00-1:00 PM
In-Person at the Ashland
Library

Oregon's O&C Lands Through the Eyes of A.W. Lafferty, 18+

This talk by Tam Moore will cover the O&C Railroad land fraud scandal, and the series of litigations that followed, focusing on A.W. Lafferty's involvement and his life outside of the cases, as well.

January 7, 12:00-1:00 PM
Online & In-Person at the
Medford Library
January 14, 12:00-1:00 PM
In-Person at the Ashland
Library

Did the Oregon Trail Computer Game Get It Right? 18+

We'll go on the Trail to see how the game stacks up to the reality of the hundreds of thousands who emigrated west. What it gets right: A lot of people did die of dysentery. What it doesn't: You cannot get there faster by mashing the spacebar.

February 4, 12:00-1:00 PM
Online & In-Person at the
Medford Library
February 11, 12:00-1:00 PM
In-Person at the Ashland
Library