

In Which Book Questions (1/4)

- In which book does the main character enter a fishing competition?
Answer: Caterpillar Summer by Gillian McDunn
- In which book does a sabbatical cause an unfortunate series of events?
Answer: Dogtown by Katherine Applegate and Gennifer Choldenko
- In which book is a pact made that, if the main character loses, she will also lose her dearest friend?
Answer: The Grace of Wild Things by Heather Fawcett
- In which book are fireworks launched at eleven in the morning instead of nine at night?
Answer: It's the End of the World and I'm In My Bathing Suit by Justin A. Reynolds
- In which book is "curing time" a form of treatment?
Answer: Light and Air by Mindy Nichols Wendell
- In which book is a secret promised to be kept by the phrase "Cross my heart and may maggots eat my eyes"?
Answer: The Witch Boy by Lee Knox Ostertag
- In which book is a creature angered by the method in which they've been saved?
Answer: Snow and Rose by Emily Winfield Martin
- Which book features a barbershop quartet?
Answer: The Magic Misfits by Neil Patrick Harris
- In which book do three friends lose track of time in a casino?
Answer: The Lightning Thief by Rick Riordan
- In which book does the main character metaphorically push all her troubles and worries into tree bark?
Answer: A Kind of Spark by Elle McNicoll
- In which book is chore time called "Community Fun Time"?
Answer: The Guardian Test by Christina Soontornvat

In Which Book Questions (2/4)

- In which book do the members of a family all get their favorite meal on both the first and last day of school?

Answer: The Misadventures of the Family Fletcher by Dana Levy

- In which book does grandpa drive an old ice cream truck named Bessie?

Answer: Murder at the Museum by Alasdair Beckett-King

- In which book is a 5th grader an expert at asking teacher-stopper questions?

Answer: Frindle by Andrew Clements

- In which book do two brothers - the mayor and the town banker - control the lives of the townspeople?

Answer: Esperanza Rising by Pam Muñoz Ryan

- In which book does a character get uninvited to a party?

Answer: Connect the Stars by Marisa de los Santos and David Teague

- In which book does a cow make ice cream instead of milk?

Answer: The Grace of Wild Things by Heather Fawcett

- In which book do siblings read the book "Where the Red Fern Grows" by Wilson Rawls together?

Answer: Caterpillar Summer by Gillian McDunn

- In which book does a character learn basic chores like washing clothes and sweeping?

Answer: Esperanza Rising by Pam Muñoz Ryan

- In which book do the characters go around to other people's houses to collect survival kit essentials?

Answer: It's the End of the World and I'm In My Bathing Suit by Justin A. Reynolds

- In which book does the main character spend time at a sanitorium?

Answer: Light and Air by Mindy Nichols Wendell

- In which book does an annual Halloween party get interrupted by a lightning storm?

Answer: The Misadventures of the Family Fletcher by Dana Levy

- In which book does somebody steal Lyza's bracelet?

Answer: Connect the Stars by Marisa de los Santos and David Teague

In Which Book Questions (3/4)

- In which book is there a tri-lingual mouse?

Answer: Dogtown by Katherine Applegate and Gennifer Choldenko

- In which book does a teacher keep a dictionary described as “the kind of book it takes two kids to carry”?

Answer: Frindle by Andrew Clements

- In which book does the main character mask who they are to fit in?

Answer: A Kind of Spark by Elle McNicoll

- Which book has a Summer Solstice deadline?

Answer: The Lightning Thief by Rick Riordan

- In which book do you need permission from the forest to enter?

Answer: The Guardian Test by Christina Soontornvat

- Which book contains multiple instances of sleight-of-hand?

Answer: The Magic Misfits by Neil Patrick Harris

- In which book are the townspeople used to facing two threats – seagulls and olde tea shoppes?

Answer: Murder at the Museum by Alasdair Beckett-King

- In which book does a character break her leg by jumping a bike over a cliff?

Answer: The Witch Boy by Lee Knox Ostertag

- In which book is the enemy held off with fire?

Answer: Snow and Rose by Emily Winfield Martin

- In which book is the main character’s full first name, Hallelujah?

Answer: Light and Air by Mindy Nichols Wendell

- In which book does the main character recreate a video game in real life for his friend?

Answer: It's the End of the World and I'm In My Bathing Suit by Justin A. Reynolds

- In which book does an entire kitchen appear to go missing?

Answer: The Grace of Wild Things by Heather Fawcett

- In which book does a pen turn into a sword?

Answer: The Lightning Thief by Rick Riordan

In Which Book Questions (4/4)

- In which book is there a 4th of July parade?

Answer: Caterpillar Summer by Gillian McDunn

- In which book does a character study telephone poles while out for a walk?

Answer: Dogtown by Katherine Applegate and Gennifer Choldenko

- In which book can the reader find excerpts about how to learn magic?

Answer: The Magic Misfits by Neil Patrick Harris

- In which book does a character share their birthday with kittens?

Answer: Snow and Rose by Emily Winfield Martin

- In which book does a character say they'd repeat their actions all over again even knowing that they'd get hurt because it was the coolest thing they've ever done?

Answer: The Witch Boy by Lee Knox Ostertag

- In which book does an imaginary friend named Ladybug turn out to be real?

Answer: The Misadventures of the Family Fletcher by Dana Levy

- In which book does a character bring honey egg cakes to share with their classmates?

Answer: The Guardian Test by Christina Soontornvat

- Which book's chapters are named after fruits and vegetables?

Answer: Esperanza Rising by Pam Muñoz Ryan

- In which book is an animal falsely accused of harming people?

Answer: Snow and Rose by Emily Winfield Martin

- In which book does a character disguise their secret identity with a fake mustache?

Answer: Murder at the Museum by Alasdair Beckett-King

- In which book is an infectious disease a main part of the story?

Answer: Light and Air by Mindy Nichols Wendell

- In which book does the main character have to take one pill in the morning and evening to help with his ADHD?

Answer: It's the End of the World and I'm In My Bathing Suit by Justin A. Reynolds

Content Questions (1/4)

- In A Kind of Spark, the main character, Addie, likes to read about what animal?
Answer: Sharks
- In Light and Air, who does Halle sneak out to see at night while in the hospital?
Answer: Her mother
- In The Lightning Thief, what item does Annabeth wear to become invisible?
Answer: A New York Yankees cap
- In The Guardian Test, how often is a new novice class chosen?
Answer: Every ten years
- In The Grace of Wild Things, how many spells does Grace have to learn to win the pact?
Answer: A hundred-and-a-half spells
- In Esperanza Rising, what happens to Esperanza at the beginning of the book that symbolizes bad luck?
Answer: She pricks her finger on a rose thorn
- In Caterpillar Summer, what does Macon fill Cat's morning mug with?
Answer: Hot chocolate
- In Dogtown, what is the name of the Saint Bernard that gets adopted thanks to a "Tail Out"?
Answer: Geraldine
- In Frindle, what is Mrs. Granger's famous battle cry?
Answer: "Look it up! That's why we have the dictionary."
- In Connect the Stars, how does Aaron get access to the Central Standards Exam early?
Answer: The principal drops a question book on the floor for him to see
- In It's the End of the World and I'm In My Bathing Suit, what does the main character, Eddie, call his stepdad?
Answer: WBD [Wanna-Be-Dad]
- In The Lightning Thief, on which floor of the Empire State Building will you find Mount Olympus?
Answer: The 600th

Content Questions (2/4)

- In The Witch Boy, what must the children learn in order to request a tree's fruit?

Answer: The tree's preferred name

- In Snow and Rose, when the father's horse comes back alone, which three of his belongings are missing?

Answer: A watch, blanket, and knife

- In Murder at the Museum, what prized possession was stolen from the museum during the power outage?

Answer: The Widdlington Eagle

- In The Misadventures of the Family Fletcher, what does Sam do well that leads to him being invited to audition for the school play?

Answer: Storytelling

- In The Magic Misfits, what is The Star of Africa?

Answer: The world's largest diamond

- In Light and Air, what does Halle's father give her as a birthday present?

Answer: A new lunchbox

- In It's the End of the World and I'm In My Bathing Suit, what type of neighborhood do the characters live in?

Answer: A cul-de-sac

- In The Guardian Test, what are the three kinds of Guardians?

Answer: Hand, Heart, and Breath

- In The Grace of Wild Things, why is it so easy for Sareena to forget Rum?

Answer: He's a fairy

- In Esperanza Rising, what is inside the secret package Miguel and Alfonso have on the train?

Answer: Cuttings from Papa's roses

- In Caterpillar Summer, what is used as bait the first time Cat catches a fish?

Answer: Shrimp

Content Questions (3/4)

- In Connect the Stars, when the Quiz Masters blow their chance at the state title, this event becomes known as what?

Answer: The Great Quiz Masters Catastrophe

- In Dogtown, what book leads to a special bond between Metal Head and Quinn?

Answer: Green Eggs and Ham

- In Frindle, the news reports that only one word (other than “frindle”) was invented by one person for no reason. What was that word?

Answer: Quiz

- In A Kind of Spark, what does Emily, Addie's bully, tear apart?

Answer: Her thesaurus

- In The Misadventures of the Family Fletcher, which war did the neighbor Mr. Nelson fight in?

Answer: Vietnam

- In Snow and Rose, what is the design on Rose's library card?

Answer: A number one printed in the four corners and a picture of a ship in the center

- In The Witch Boy, how does the grandmother prove that any gender can possess witchery vs. shifting powers?

Answer: She shows her ability to become a bird

- In Murder at the Museum, where does Herman Hornville hide his address book?

Answer: In a hidden room behind a bookshelf

- In Caterpillar Summer, what is the name of the book series Cat's mom writes?

Answer: Caterpillar and Chicken

- In Dogtown, what does Chance call non-robot dogs?

Answer: Flesh-and-bloods

- In Frindle, what sentence does Mrs. Granger have students stay after school to write?

Answer: “I am writing this punishment with a pen.”

- In The Grace of Wild Things, what does Grace say when casting each spell?

Answer: “May it be, by sun and stars!”

Content Questions (4/4)

- In The Lightning Thief, what is the name of the private boarding school Percy attends in upstate New York?

Answer: Yancy Academy

- In The Misadventures of the Family Fletcher, what choice does Eli make that ends up being very difficult for him?

Answer: Going to Pinnacle

- In Snow and Rose, what is the name of the mushroom discovered by Ivo?

Answer: Sandman's Pocket

- In A Kind of Spark, what is the name of the character who has the same condition as Addie?

Answer: Keedie

- In It's the End of the World and I'm In My Bathing Suit, what does Eddie use to find the missing people?

Answer: Betsy, his stepdad's car

- In The Guardian Test, where does Plum finally transform?

Answer: In the garden

- In Esperanza Rising, the babies get sick from eating plums while in Esperanza's care. What does she give them to make them better?

Answer: Rice water

- In Connect the Stars, which priorities in the desert are part of the acronym PHWSS?

Answer: Pack a Hat, Water, Sunscreen, and Socks

- In The Grace of Wild Things, which fairytale does the witch believe she inspired?

Answer: Hansel and Gretel

- In Light and Air, what is Halle's nickname?

Answer: Glory

- In Murder at the Museum, what plant creates the poison found in the murderous dart?

Answer: Deadly Frightshade